

Browse

Inheriting Traits Lessons

Bookmark

Print Page

Print Lesson

Inheriting Traits Lesson Cluster

VOCABULARY

Word	Definition	Lesson
diagram	A drawing that shows how things are related to one another.	Where Do Traits Come From?
evidence	Facts or observations to support an explanation.	Where Do Traits Come From?
inherit	To receive a trait from one's parents.	Where Do Traits Come From?
life cycle	An organism's pattern of birth, growth, reproduction and death.	Are All Dogs Alike?
litter	A group of babies born to an animal at one time.	Variation from Parents offspring	The young of a plant or animal.	Are All Dogs Alike?
organism	Any living thing.	Are All Dogs Alike?
pattern	Something that has regularly repeating characteristics. A sequence of events that repeats.	Are All Dogs Alike?
reproduce	To produce offspring.	Are All Dogs Alike?
sapling	A young tree.	Where Do Traits Come From?
siblings	Offspring that have the same parents. Brothers and sisters.	Variation from Parents

— ... on

Quick Look

Preparation

Session

After the Lesson

 Resources

Background Info

Vocabulary

Classroom Media

Assignments

Assessments

Teacher Tools